

Pocket Prayer

Heavenly Father, You are the God who reached down from heaven to transport Your children from death to life, from slavery to freedom, from prison to the Promised Land. Thank you for the Promised Land of Your presence, provision, and promises. Thank you that You have "career territory" already carved out for me. Open my eyes to understand how You have gifted me, the interests You have planted in me, and the purposes You have prepared for me. Help me see how You want to weave these Master F.I.T. elements together to be a part of your master plan. Lord, when I face battles on my journey, be my defender and source of strength. I stand on Your promise "the battle is the Lord's." Thank you for loving me and caring about my career. I pray You would bless my career in whatever way You choose, for I know I can trust a God who is able to do immeasurably more than all I ask or imagine. In Jesus' name, Amen.
